Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce's Legislative Luncheon Discusses Lowcountry "Hot Topics"

BEAUFORT, SC (Jan. 30, 2019) - The Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce hosted the 2019 Legislative Luncheon on Mon., Jan. 28, 2019 at the Callawassie Island Club.

During the event, the Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce presented its 2019 Legislative Agenda. State Elected Officials also discussed their plans for the 2019 General Assembly. Delegates included: Senator Chip Campsen, Senator Tom Davis, Representative Jeff Bradley, and Representative Shannon Erickson. Each expressed their outlooks on a host of different topics including: tax reform, education funding and workforce development opportunities, the preservation of our environment, healthcare, economic expansion, and more.

"Our Legislative Agenda is influenced by topics that our membership and the business community find most critical," stated Blakely Williams, President & CEO of the Beaufort Regional Chamber. "The Legislative Luncheon outlines our most pressing policy priorities for this year's legislative session. We look forward to working on these key issues at home and with our Delegation at the state level."

The 2019 Legislative Luncheon was presented by the Beaufort Regional Chamber of Commerce in partnership with Callawassie Island Club, Lockheed Martin, and Servpro of Beaufort County with support from Beaufort-Jasper County Realtors, Beaufort Memorial Hospital, Dominion Energy, and Hilton Head Island Airport. Additional support was provided by Alliance Consulting Engineers, Ameris Bank, BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina, CPM Federal Credit Union, Hilton Head Area

Home Builders Association, Lowcountry & Resort Islands Tourism Commission, Southern Carolina Alliance, and Sprenger Health Care of Port Royal.

The Chamber would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the attendees for their interest and support of the Legislative Agenda and continuing to make Beaufort County an ideal place to invest, prosper and enjoy.
